

DEADLINE

Six weeks before your study period ends.

WHAT IS AN APPEAL?

An appeal is the process by which you have the opportunity to request a reconsideration of your assessed award. If you have had an exceptional circumstance that meets one or more of the criteria listed below and you have not received the maximum amount of funding for the application study period, you may submit an appeal request. Once evaluated, the appeal request may result in a change to your StudentAid BC award.

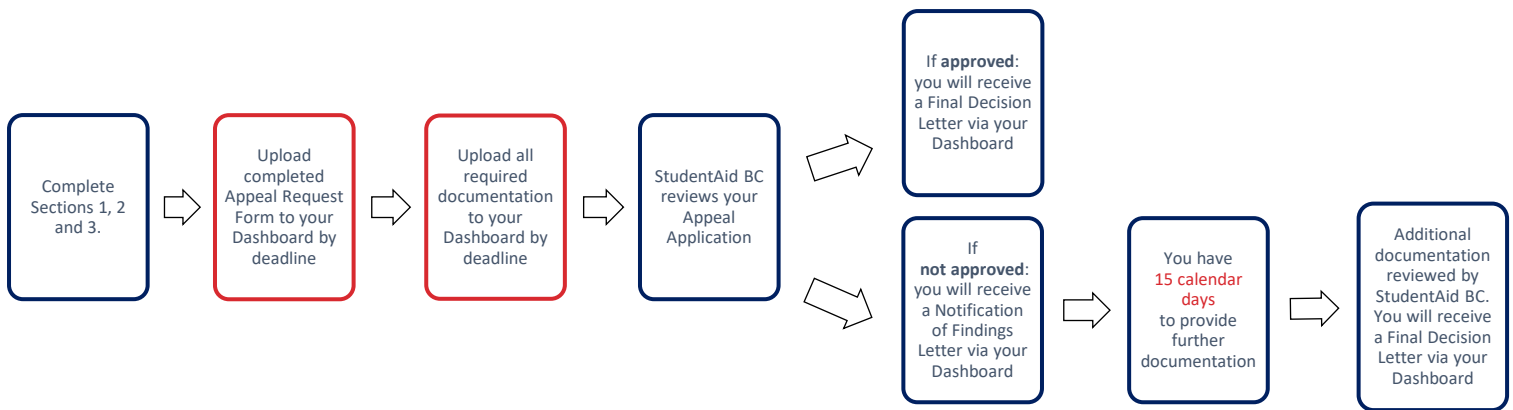

APPEAL CRITERIA

You may appeal the B.C. student loan lifetime maximum limit if you meet one or more of the following criteria:

- You require funding to complete your study period.
- You require approximately one or two more semesters to complete your program.
- There are exceptional circumstances that contributed to your higher borrowing amount.

APPEAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Talk to a Financial Aid Officer at your school, they can help you with the appeal process. If you are unable to contact a Financial Aid Officer, contact StudentAid BC.
2. Review the Appeal Criteria.
3. Complete Sections 1, 2 and 3.
4. Upload your completed Appeal Request Form and all required documentation to your StudentAid BC Dashboard.
