

Appeal Request Form

MODIFIED INDEPENDENT (GROUP B) STATUS

USE THIS FORM IF YOUR APPEAL REQUEST IS RELATED TO CLASSES THAT BEGAN PRIOR TO AUGUST 1, 2017

You will need to refer to the 2016/2017 Policy Manual

The Appeal Process

You can ask for an appeal of your assessment of financial need if circumstances set you apart from other students.

All appeal requests are reviewed by StudentAid BC staff, who will consider the information you provide and review your supporting documentation.

You must show that your circumstances differ significantly from other students.

The first steps

1. If you are attending a B.C. private school or a school outside B.C., contact StudentAid BC for help. If you are attending a public university, college or institute in B.C., we encourage you to discuss your situation with a financial aid officer at your school, as they can help with the appeal process.
2. Read the detailed information provided on the appeal forms.
3. Include a letter outlining your request, social insurance number, name and address, and attach all required documentation. Mail, fax, or email this information to StudentAid BC.

Your appeal request must include the following:

- A clear explanation of what you are appealing.
- What your situation is and why you are requesting an appeal.
- What makes your circumstances exceptional when compared with other students.
- How your circumstances prevent you from successfully completing your studies.
- What other funding options you have explored, such as part-time work, bursaries, scholarships, personal lines of credit.
- Documentation that supports your appeal.

In some cases, the appeal request will be referred to an independent appeal committee. The appeal committee includes members of the public, students, and financial aid officers from colleges, institutes and universities. Appeal committee recommendations are final. The committee will not consider submissions on policies that are not eligible for appeal.

Note: If your resources – such as student or spousal prestudy income, study period income or assets – have changed, please submit an Appendix 7: Request for Reassessment.

CHECKLIST

If you would normally be an dependent (Group A) student as defined by StudentAid BC policy, but no longer communicate with your parent(s)/step-parent/sponsor/legal guardian due to an irreconcilable rift that has been ongoing for at least one year (or if a sudden serious situation has risen) you may be considered a modified independent (Group B) student. To be considered for modified independent (Group B) status, you must include the following three letters:

- A notarized statement from you detailing the nature of the family rift, how long the rift has existed, and why it continues.
- A letter from a professional third party (not a member of your immediate or extended family) on business letterhead, testifying as to the truthfulness of your explanation and providing an independent assessment of the situation. This letter must state how long the person has known you and in what capacity. The third party could be any of the following:
- counsellor
 - psychologist
 - religious adviser
 - doctor
 - teacher
 - social worker
 - law enforcement officer
- A detailed letter from your parent(s)/step-parent/sponsor/legal guardian explaining the nature of the family rift, how long the rift has existed and why it continues.

Note:

If a parental letter cannot be obtained, a second letter from another professional third party must be submitted.

If you would normally be a dependent (Group A) student but are unable to contact or locate your parent(s)/step-parent/sponsor/legal guardian due to conflict within the country where they live (war, famine, natural disaster), you may be considered for independent (Group B) status.

If you were a youth in continuing custody of a director of child welfare on your 19th birthday from a province other than British Columbia, please attach the following documentation:

- A letter from the appropriate provincial agency that indicates that you were a youth in continuing custody of a director of child welfare on your 19th birthday.

Allow 4-6 weeks for processing.

PLEASE STAPLE ANY REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION TO THIS FORM.
